

Cornell Notes

Matrix -- Sociology

Theory	View of Society	View of Individual	View of Social Change	Key Concepts
Conflict Theory	Groups competing for scarce resources	People shaped by social institutions	Change is inevitable & continuous	Power, dominance, conflict, coercion
Functionalism	System of interrelated & interdependent parts	People shaped by society to perform functions	Systems tend to resist change	Integration, stability, interdependence
Interactionism	Interaction creates social consensus	Self arises from communication	Involves finding new consensus	Symbols, consensus, shared expectations

Web or Map

