Act, Dance, Put on a Show!!

Trained or first-time actors & dancers ~ come join in the fun and perform the fantastically fun story, "THE NOT SO MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF CINDERELLA." This two-week, fun-filled camp will teach acting and dance to kids ages 8 to 16 as they learn the basics of auditioning, scene blocking, choreography and develop a 30-minute musical to be performed the last day of camp on the Whatley Center stage for family and friends.

Auditions for parts will take place the second day of camp (we'll get to know each other on day one and learn auditioning skills).

Every camper will be cast. Those cast as lead roles will be required to memorize lines each night in preparation for the next day's rehearsal (no worries, you can do it!) Costumes and sets provided. Once registered, campers' parents will receive an introductory email with all information regarding attire, snack break, performance time, and auditioning & line memorization tips. Please email jodiewilk@performancesupplycompany.com for more information.

•In the "The Not So Mysterious Disappearance of Cinderella" everyone in the kingdom is a suspect in Cinderella's whereabouts. The Fairy Godmother, the Big Bad Wolf, Papa, Mama and Baby Bear, Goldilocks, Snow White, Belle and more fairytale characters feverishly search for Cinderella in this cute fairytale farce of a princess gone rogue.
