Course Structure and Overview:

This is an online, 16-week course and will require extensive engagement (with other students, the instructor, and the course materials) as well as timely completion of assignments. Assignments are due weekly thus, keeping up with the schedule is essential to your success. Your personal schedule must allow you to keep up with the due dates for the readings and other assignments. Late work is not allowed in this course, so you must plan your schedule carefully. In addition, this course does not permit the use of generative AI tools to complete coursework. Any work that violates this policy will be assigned a grade of zero.

Exams:

You will have 2 exams in this course-a midterm exam and a final exam. These exams will be 40 multiple choice questions, and you will have 75 minutes to test in BB. These exams will count as 35% of your overall course grade.

Coursework/Timely Submissions Grade:

Students will be expected to turn all quizzes and tests in on time and as assigned. This 10% of your overall grade will be computed as follows and based upon a 100-point scale:

- 1 late submission will result in a 5-point deduction (grade of 95)
- 2 late submissions will result in a 10 point deduction (grade of 90)
- 3 late submissions will result in a 20-point deduction (grade of 80)
- 4-6 late submissions will result in a 50-point deduction (grade of 50)
- More than 6 late submissions and your timeliness grade will be a 0 out of 100 points.

Quizzes:

Each chapter will have an associated quiz in Connect. These quizzes will count as 35% of your overall course grade. All quizzes consist of 25 multiple choice questions and are worth 100 points. You will have 30 minutes to complete them and only 1 attempt. Please see the course schedule attached to this syllabus for dates.

Late Work Policy:

Please allow yourself an appropriate amount of time to complete the coursework. Students who wait until the last minute often miss the deadline and then cannot receive credit for their work. All due dates for the entire course are included with this syllabus so you can work as far ahead as you would like. This policy will be applied consistently, and exceptions will only be made for verifiable extenuating circumstances. Any request for an exception will require completion of a formal written request. Students should reach out to the instructor to obtain the appropriate forms for making this request. Please understand that I must adhere to this policy for all students.

Final Grades:

Your final course grade will be based upon the grade scale noted earlier in this syllabus. THERE ARE NO extra credit opportunities. In addition, there are no “retakes” for any assignments or exams. The scores that you receive on your original submissions will be what is counted toward your final grade. Please understand that I must adhere to this grading policy for all students so exceptions will not be made.

Communications:

- EMAIL: Please check your NTCC email EVERYDAY. Email is the official form of communication used here at NTCC. All emailed questions to the instructor will be responded to within 24 hours, but usually within a few hours when possible.
- PHONE: As an adjunct, I do not have an office on NTCC’s campus and therefore no associated phone number. If you need immediate assistance, you may call my Division Director’s at 903-466-3853. Text messages that are longer than 25 words need to be an email. I will not respond to text messages that do not include the name and course section of the student sending the message.

- ANNOUNCEMENTS: These can be found within Blackboard under the course link on your Bb homepage. Please make sure you read any announcements thoroughly when they are posted there.

Institutional/Course Policy:

Several elements are essential for your success in this course. You will need to understand these fully prior to starting the course:

All online courses require extensive engagement (with other students, the instructor, and the course materials) as well as timely completion of assignments. Assignments are due weekly. Thus, keeping up with the schedule is essential to your success. Your personal schedule must allow you to keep up with the due dates for the readings and other assignments. Late work is not allowed, so you must plan your schedule carefully. Although attendance is not the same as a face-to-face course you must “attend” regularly online to complete all assignments and meet required due dates.

Alternate Operations During Campus Closure and/or Alternate Course Delivery Requirements:

In the event of an emergency or announced campus closure due to a natural disaster or pandemic, it may be necessary for Northeast Texas Community College to move to altered operations. During this time, Northeast Texas Community College may opt to continue delivery of instruction through methods that include, but are not limited to, online through the Blackboard Learning Management System, online conferencing, email messaging, and/or an alternate schedule. It is the responsibility of the student to monitor NTCC’s website (<http://www.ntcc.edu/>) for instructions about continuing courses remotely, Blackboard for each class for course-specific communication, and NTCC email for important general information.

Additionally, there may be instances where a course may not be able to be continued in the same delivery format as it originates (face-to-face, fully online, live remote, or hybrid). Should this be the case, every effort will be made to continue instruction in an alternative delivery format. Students will be informed of any changes of this nature through email messaging and/or the Blackboard course site.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA):

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's educational records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are considered "eligible students." In essence, a parent has no legal right to obtain information concerning the child's college records without the written consent of the student. In compliance with FERPA, information classified as "directory information" may be released to the general public without the written consent of the student unless the student makes a request in writing. Directory information is defined as: the student's name, permanent address and/or local address, telephone listing, dates of attendance, most recent previous education institution attended, other information including major, field of study, degrees, awards received, and participation in officially recognized activities/sports.
