Course Structure and Overview:

Welcome to Theatre Appreciation. This is a sixteen (16) week online class. There are no face-to-face lectures. Assignments and due dates are listed in the course schedule. You will be interacting with your classmates through discussions. It is important that you participate in a respectful manner, without bias or judgement. Please review your assignments in advance so that you will be prepared.

You have a great deal of autonomy in the rate in which you read the material and handle the assignments. As with many things in life, time management will be crucial in the level of success you achieve this semester. The Blackboard Learning Management System contains a course navigation bar and home page. You must work sensibly and conscientiously to be successful in this course.

Communications:

Please use your NTCC Student E-mail for all correspondence and not Blackboard messaging. I will respond within 24 hours.

Institutional/Course Policy:

1. You must complete online assignments promptly and before the due date. No late work is accepted.
2. Read all Blackboard announcements as they are posted.
3. You must check NTCC email and Blackboard daily.
4. You must monitor your grades in Blackboard and contact me via e-mail if you have any questions.
5. Withdrawal Policy: It is your responsibility to drop a course or withdraw from the college. Once you have submitted the syllabus acknowledgment, you are considered in- attendance. If you stop participating in the course without withdrawing, you will still receive a grade, whether passing or failing.

7. Attendance Policy: An online class requires consistent engagement. All of your activity, including the links that you access, and the amount of time spent on each activity, is tracked through Blackboard. Failure to participate in course activities, complete required readings, and turn in work will lower your course grade or cause you to lose course credit completely

Alternate Operations During Campus Closure and/or Alternate Course Delivery Requirements:

In the event of an emergency or announced campus closure due to a natural disaster or pandemic, it may be necessary for Northeast Texas Community College to move to altered operations. During this time, Northeast Texas Community College may opt to continue delivery of instruction through methods that include, but are not limited to, online through the Blackboard Learning Management System, online conferencing, email messaging, and/or an alternate schedule. It is the responsibility of the student to monitor NTCC's website (<http://www.ntcc.edu/>) for instructions about continuing courses remotely, Blackboard for each class for course-specific communication, and NTCC email for important general information.

Additionally, there may be instances where a course may not be able to be continued in the same delivery format as it originates (face-to-face, fully online, live remote, or hybrid). Should this be the case, every effort will be made to continue instruction in an alternative delivery format. Students will be informed of any changes of this nature through email messaging and/or the Blackboard course site.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. Students to whom the rights have transferred are considered "eligible students." In essence, a parent has no legal right to obtain information concerning the child's college records without the written consent of the student. In compliance with FERPA, information classified as "directory information" may be released to the general public without the written consent of the student unless the student makes a request in writing. Directory information is defined as: the student's name, permanent address and/or local address, telephone listing, dates of attendance, most recent previous education institution attended, other information including major, field of study, degrees, awards received, and participation in officially recognized activities/sports.
