Please be aware that NO EXTRA CREDIT WILL BE GIVEN at the end of the semester. The average shown in Bb will determine the final course grade, and no additional work is possible.

Attendance: At the end of the semester, grades will be calculated according to the percentages in the syllabus, and the only adjustment that will be made is if the final percentage is WITHIN ONE POINT of the next letter grade (and NO more), and the student has missed THREE OR LESS LECTURES. (Mitigating circumstances will be taken into account at the discretion of the instructor.) The grade will then be rounded up to the next letter grade. Failure to log in and complete assignments by due dates can result in being dropped from the course.

General:

Students should log onto Blackboard (Bb) ASAP and carefully read all announcements. Bb and student email should be checked DAILY for new announcements or messages.

Questions are welcomed during office hours (or by appointment), or if more convenient, they can be directed to me either by phone or e-mail. Please do not hesitate to ask questions! There is no such thing as a stupid question. It is only stupid NOT to ASK them. It is VERY difficult to improve your course average after you fail the first exam, so PLEASE contact the instructor for help or studying tips EARLY in the semester, before it is too late to make a difference.

Exam/Quiz Make-Up Policy: If a student is unable to take an exam/quiz as scheduled, a make-up will be arranged ONLY if the reason is legitimate, and the instructor is notified IN ADVANCE of the time the exam/quiz is scheduled (or becomes unavailable), either through the telephone or e-mail. Students who fail to make appropriate arrangements will receive a grade of "0" for the exam missed. There will be no exceptions.

Student Responsibilities/Expectations:

If you attend this class or a portion of this class on-campus then class etiquette dictates that you will:

1. Attend class each time the class meets.
2. Be on time for class and remain for the entire period. You may not receive credit if you do not attend all sessions.
3. Refrain from talking while the professor is lecturing. Idle chattering and giggling are disruptive to the class and disrespectful to your professor and your classmates.
4. Be attentive and participate in class.

Family Educational Rights And Privacy Act (FERPA):

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's educational records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are considered "eligible students." In essence, a parent has no legal right to obtain information concerning the child's college records without the written consent of the student. In compliance with FERPA, information classified as "directory information" may be released to the general public without the written consent of the student unless the student makes a request in writing. Directory information is defined as: the student's name, permanent address and/or local address, telephone listing, dates of attendance, most recent previous education institution attended, other information including major, field of study, degrees, awards received, and participation in officially recognized activities/sports.

Alternate Operations During Campus Closure and/or Alternate Course Delivery Requirements

In the event of an emergency or announced campus closure due to a natural disaster or pandemic, it may be necessary for Northeast Texas Community College to move to altered operations. During this time, Northeast Texas Community College may opt to continue delivery of instruction through methods that include, but are not limited to, online through the Blackboard Learning Management System, online conferencing, email messaging, and/or an alternate schedule. It is the responsibility of the student to monitor NTCC's website (<http://www.ntcc.edu/>) for instructions about continuing courses remotely, Blackboard for each class for course-specific communication, and NTCC email for important general information.

Additionally, there may be instances where a course may not be able to be continued in the same delivery format as it originates (face-to-face, fully online, live remote, or hybrid). Should this be the case, every effort will be made to continue instruction in an alternative delivery format. Students will be informed of any changes of this nature through email messaging and/or the Blackboard course site.
